Rep. Shuler to Meet with Cattlemen Affected by Drought this morning

Washington, D.C. – Representative Heath Shuler is hosting a forum with Western North Carolina cattlemen affected by the drought at the Haywood County Agriculture Service Center. The forum will be attended by the N.C. Department of Agriculture, Farm Service Agency, and Co-op agencies.

The parties will be discussing what aid may be available to cattlemen as they look for food for their cattle. Severe drought conditions have caused a shortage of hay in Western North Carolina and surrounding areas.
