Rep. Shuler to Announce Federal Grant to Help Homeless Veterans

Washington, D.C. – Representative Heath Shuler will be announcing a federal grant to the Asheville Buncombe Community Christian Ministry on Monday, October 22nd.

The grant will be used to create transitional housing that will provide 100 beds for homeless veterans.

What: Announcement of a federal grant to the Asheville Buncombe Community Christian Ministry (ABCCM).

Who: Representative Heath Shuler; Rev. Scott Rogers, Executive Director of ABCCM

When: 11:00 a.m., Monday, October 22, 2007

Where: Super 8 Motel
1329 Tunnel Rd
Asheville, NC

Note: This former motel will be the location of the housing facility.

Founded in 1969, the Asheville Buncombe Community Christian Ministry has worked hard to create opportunities, to give a helping hand, and to provide compassion and hope for those in need. The organization, which started as just eight churches, is now nearly 250 congregations working together to help their neighbors.
